1 education_benefit.pdf

Farris Heritage Trust - Educational Assistance Program

Purpose

The Farris Heritage Trust encourages educational achievement among descendants of the Grantor, Ronald Lafe Farris.

This program reimburses qualified educational expenses for eligible beneficiaries.

Eligible Programs

Educational assistance may be available for:

- Undergraduate university programs
- Graduate degree programs
- Accredited vocational or trade schools
- Professional certification programs
- Apprenticeships

Lifetime Benefit Limits

Subject to Trust provisions:

Undergraduate Study

Up to 130 credit hours of tuition reimbursement.

Graduate Study

Up to 40 credit hours of tuition reimbursement.

Vocational or Trade Programs

Up to $5,000 per program.

Age Limits

Undergraduate reimbursement available until age 30.

Graduate reimbursement available until age 45.

The semester in which the beneficiary reaches the age limit remains eligible.

Payer of Last Resort

The Trust operates as a payer of last resort.

Before Trust reimbursement is considered, the following must be applied:

• Scholarships
• Grants
• Fellowships
• Employer education programs
• Veterans benefits
• Government assistance
• 529 plans or education savings accounts
• Loans or family contributions

The Trust reimburses only the remaining unpaid balance.

Required Documentation

Applicants must submit:

• Institutional billing statement
• Proof of scholarships or other aid
• Enrollment verification or transcript
• Documentation of grades
• Claim worksheet summarizing the unpaid balance

Payment Method

Payments are normally reimbursements to the claimant after verification.

At the Trustee's discretion, payment may be made directly to the institution.

Important Conditions

• Courses must be completed with a passing grade
• Failed or withdrawn courses are not eligible
• Claims must be filed within the annual claim window

Application

Claims must be submitted using the Farris Heritage Trust Beneficiary Claim Form during the annual filing period.

---

2 basic_support_benefit.pdf

Farris Heritage Trust - Basic Support Assistance

Purpose

The Basic Support program provides limited income support to help eligible beneficiaries maintain financial stability during periods of hardship.

The program is intended to assist recovery and independence, not create dependency.

Eligibility

Eligibility may include:

• DNA-verified descendants age 25 or older
• Individuals specifically named in the Trust instrument

Applicants must have filed a U.S. federal tax return as "Single."

Income Standard

The Trust supplements income so that eligible beneficiaries reach at least the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) for a single individual.

The Trust supplements income — it does not replace it.

Duration

For most descendants:

Basic support is limited to a maximum of five cumulative years.

Named priority beneficiaries identified in the Trust may receive support for longer periods if provided by the Trust instrument.

Required Documentation

Applicants must provide:

• Federal income tax return (Form 1040)
• Supporting income documents (W-2, 1099, SSA-1099, etc.)
• Documentation of public assistance if applicable

Payment Principles

The Trust functions as a payer of last resort.

All other income sources must be applied first.

Payments are normally made after verification of income documentation.

Fraud Prevention

Providing false or misleading information may result in:

- permanent loss of benefits
- recovery of funds
- possible legal action

Application

Applications must be submitted during the annual claim period using the official claim form.

---

3 entrepreneurial_benefit.pdf

Farris Heritage Trust - Entrepreneurial Development Program

Purpose

The Trust encourages productive work and entrepreneurship among eligible beneficiaries.

This program provides limited start-up assistance to support small business creation or vocational enterprise.

Eligibility

Eligible applicants may include:

• Descendants of the Grantor
• Individuals specifically named in the Trust instrument

Each eligible individual may receive one entrepreneurial benefit during their lifetime.

Benefit Structure

The program provides two potential grants:

Initial Grant

Up to $5,000 upon approval of a business plan and proof of business registration.

Follow-On Grant

Up to $5,000 after 24 months, provided the business remains active and verifiable.

Eligible Activities

Examples may include:

• Small business formation
• Professional service businesses
• Skilled trades
• Agricultural or craft enterprises
• Technology or consulting ventures

Documentation Requirements

Applicants must submit:

• Business plan summary
• Proof of business registration
• Evidence of active operations
• Receipts or expense documentation

Program Goals

The program is intended to encourage:

- productive work
- responsible risk-taking
- long-term self-sufficiency

Application

Applications must be submitted using the official Trust claim form during the annual filing period.

heritage_name_benefit.pdf

Farris Heritage Trust - Heritage Name Recognition Benefit

Purpose

The Heritage Name Benefit honors the Grantor's family lineage and encourages the continuation of traditional family names across generations.

Eligible Names

A one-time benefit may be available when a descendant names a newborn child using one of the following names as either a first or middle name:

- Jack
- Ruth
- Jane
- Ronald
- Lafe

Benefit Amount

Eligible descendants may receive a one-time recognition benefit.

The amount is indexed periodically to reflect inflation.

Eligibility Requirements

- The claimant must be a descendant of the Grantor or a designated beneficiary.
- The child's name must appear on the official birth certificate.
- The claim must be submitted within two years of the child's birth.

Required Documentation

Applicants must provide:

- Certified copy of the birth certificate
- Completed Trust claim form

Payment

The benefit is payable once per eligible child after verification by the Trustee.

Program Purpose

This program exists to:

• honor the family heritage
• preserve historical continuity
• celebrate the legacy of the Grantor’s family

Application

Claims must be submitted during the annual claim period using the official Trust claim form.