Farris Heritage Trust - Heritage Name Recognition Benefit

Purpose

The Heritage Name Benefit honors the Grantor's family lineage and encourages the continuation of traditional family names across generations.

Eligible Names

A one-time benefit may be available when a descendant names a newborn child using one of the following names as either a first or middle name:

- Jack
- Ruth
- Jane
- Ronald
- Lafe
- Farris

Benefit Amount

Eligible descendants may receive a one-time recognition benefit of $5000.00.

The amount is indexed periodically to reflect inflation.

Eligibility Requirements

- The claimant must be a descendant of the Grantor or a designated beneficiary.
- The child's name must appear on the official birth certificate.
- The claim must be submitted within two years of the child's birth or longer if approved by the Grantor.

Required Documentation

Applicants must provide:

- Certified copy of the birth certificate
- Completed Trust claim form

Payment

The benefit is payable once per eligible child after verification by the Trustee.

Program Purpose

This program exists to:

- honor the family heritage
- preserve historical continuity
- celebrate the legacy of the Grantor’s family

Application

Claims must be submitted during the annual claim period using the official Trust claim form.
